

Faith When the Road Is Unclear

HEROES OF FAITH / Abraham and Sarah

Read: Genesis 12:1-9; Hebrews 11:8-10

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Abraham obeyed God without knowing every turn ahead. His journey also included fear and poor choices; faithfulness was not perfection. A husband can invite his wife into decisions honestly, listen to her concerns, and trust God rather than demand certainty.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Abraham and Sarah?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Faith When the Road Is Unclear

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Courage to Remain Loyal

HEROES OF FAITH / Ruth and Boaz

Read: Ruth 2:1-12; Ruth 4:9-13

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Boaz used his influence to protect Ruth and treated her with dignity. His integrity reminds husbands that strength serves rather than exploits. Honor is visible in private decisions as well as public reputation.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Ruth and Boaz?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Courage to Remain Loyal

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Listening When God Speaks

HEROES OF FAITH / Samuel and Hannah

Read: 1 Samuel 3:1-10; 1 Samuel 3:19-21

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Samuel learned to respond, "Speak; for thy servant heareth." Spiritual maturity starts with an attentive heart, not with always having the answer. Husbands can make room to listen to Scripture and to their wives without rushing to fix everything.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Samuel and Hannah?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Listening When God Speaks

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Courage in a Difficult Season

HEROES OF FAITH / Esther and Mordecai

Read: Esther 4:1-8; Esther 4:12-14

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Mordecai urged Esther to recognize her responsibility, but he could not take her place. A husband can encourage courage without controlling his spouse or making decisions for her.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Esther and Mordecai?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Courage in a Difficult Season

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Choosing Integrity Over Convenience

HEROES OF FAITH / Joseph in Egypt

Read: Genesis 39:6-12; Genesis 41:38-41

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Joseph refused temptation even when no one appeared to be watching. Integrity often costs something before it bears fruit. A husband safeguards trust by practicing truthfulness in habits, work, technology, and relationships.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Joseph in Egypt?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Choosing Integrity Over Convenience

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Standing Firm Under Pressure

HEROES OF FAITH / Daniel and His Friends

Read: Daniel 1:8-20; Daniel 6:10-23

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Daniel built steady habits of prayer before the crisis arrived. Marriage needs ordinary disciplines that sustain courage in extraordinary circumstances. Husbands can lead by personal consistency rather than display.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Daniel and His Friends?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Standing Firm Under Pressure

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Restoring What Is Broken

HEROES OF FAITH / Nehemiah

Read: Nehemiah 1:1-11; Nehemiah 2:11-18

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Nehemiah began with prayer, honest assessment, and practical action. Husbands can learn to face a neglected problem without blame or denial. Healthy repair starts by naming what is broken and asking God for wisdom.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Nehemiah?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Restoring What Is Broken

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

A Heart After God

HEROES OF FAITH / David and Abigail

Read: 1 Samuel 25:2-35; Psalm 51:1-12

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

David was capable of both courageous trust and destructive anger. Abigail confronted a rash decision, and David listened. Husbands can honor God by accepting correction instead of defending pride.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of David and Abigail?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

A Heart After God

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Partnership in Ministry

HEROES OF FAITH / Priscilla and Aquila

Read: Acts 18:1-4; Acts 18:18-28

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Aquila served alongside Priscilla in work, hospitality, and teaching. Their shared mission shows that a husband is not diminished by his wife's gifts. Celebrate what God is doing through both partners.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Priscilla and Aquila?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Partnership in Ministry

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Hope While Waiting

HEROES OF FAITH / Simeon and Anna

Read: Luke 2:25-32; Isaiah 40:28-31

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Simeon waited for the consolation of Israel and remained attentive to the Spirit. Waiting can tempt a husband to impatience or discouragement. God invites steady faith rather than frantic control.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Simeon and Anna?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Hope While Waiting

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Faith That Encourages Others

HEROES OF FAITH / Barnabas and Timothy

Read: Acts 4:36-37; Acts 9:26-28

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Barnabas made space for someone others mistrusted. Encouragement is more than praise; it sees grace at work and speaks hope. Husbands can look for ways to strengthen their wives rather than focus on shortcomings.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Barnabas and Timothy?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Faith That Encourages Others

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Finishing Faithfully Together

HEROES OF FAITH / Paul and the Witnesses of Faith

Read: 2 Timothy 4:6-8; Philippians 3:12-14

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Paul viewed his life as a race requiring perseverance and grace. A husband can pursue faithfulness in small daily decisions, confess failures, and keep his eyes on Christ rather than on achievement.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Paul and the Witnesses of Faith?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Finishing Faithfully Together

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?