

Faith When the Road Is Unclear

HEROES OF FAITH / Abraham and Sarah

Read: Genesis 18:9-15; Hebrews 11:11-12

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Sarah faced years of waiting and moments of doubt. God did not forget His promise, though His timing challenged her hopes. A wife can bring disappointment honestly to the Lord and speak truthfully with her husband as they wait together.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Abraham and Sarah?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Faith When the Road Is Unclear

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Courage to Remain Loyal

HEROES OF FAITH / Ruth and Boaz

Read: Ruth 1:16-18; Ruth 2:10-13

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Ruth chose costly loyalty amid loss, showing courage and steadfast kindness. Her story is not a demand to endure harm; it displays freely chosen faithfulness and trust in God. Wives can consider how steady love and wise initiative bless a home.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Ruth and Boaz?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Courage to Remain Loyal

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Listening When God Speaks

HEROES OF FAITH / Samuel and Hannah

Read: 1 Samuel 1:9-20; 1 Samuel 1:24-28

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Hannah brought deep grief to God and was misunderstood by Eli. Her prayer shows that honest sorrow belongs in divine care. Wives can approach God with unspoken burdens and invite their husbands into what they are experiencing.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Samuel and Hannah?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Listening When God Speaks

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Courage in a Difficult Season

HEROES OF FAITH / Esther and Mordecai

Read: Esther 4:15-17; Esther 5:1-8

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Esther acted with wisdom, preparation, and courage when much was at stake. Her bravery was not recklessness: she sought support and chose her moment. A wife may discover that God can use her voice to protect others and strengthen her household.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Esther and Mordecai?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Courage in a Difficult Season

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Choosing Integrity Over Convenience

HEROES OF FAITH / Joseph in Egypt

Read: Genesis 45:1-15; Psalm 105:16-22

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Joseph also faced betrayal and had to choose how to respond years later. His eventual mercy was not denial of evil. A wife can reflect on wise boundaries, truth-telling, and what it means to allow God to heal resentment without excusing harm.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Joseph in Egypt?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Choosing Integrity Over Convenience

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Standing Firm Under Pressure

HEROES OF FAITH / Daniel and His Friends

Read: Daniel 3:13-27; Daniel 6:25-28

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego trusted God even while admitting that deliverance was not guaranteed. Their conviction challenges every believer to resist pressure without presuming an easy outcome. Wives can draw strength from divine care in uncertainty.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Daniel and His Friends?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Standing Firm Under Pressure

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Restoring What Is Broken

HEROES OF FAITH / Nehemiah

Read: Nehemiah 4:6-14; Nehemiah 6:15-16

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

The rebuilding required shared labor and watchfulness. No single person repaired Jerusalem alone. Wives can recognize how patient, united effort helps restore habits, communication, and trust in a home.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Nehemiah?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Restoring What Is Broken

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

A Heart After God

HEROES OF FAITH / David and Abigail

Read: 1 Samuel 25:14-35; Proverbs 15:1

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Abigail acted wisely during a dangerous conflict and spoke with courage. Her example values discernment, not silence. Wives may wisely interrupt harmful patterns while remembering that they are not responsible for another adult's choices.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of David and Abigail?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

A Heart After God

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Partnership in Ministry

HEROES OF FAITH / Priscilla and Aquila

Read: Romans 16:3-5; Acts 18:24-26

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Priscilla appears with Aquila as they help Apollos understand the way of God more accurately. Her gifts contributed to their shared ministry. A wife need not hide her abilities to pursue unity; together they can steward them humbly.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Priscilla and Aquila?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Partnership in Ministry

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Hope While Waiting

HEROES OF FAITH / Simeon and Anna

Read: Luke 2:36-38; Psalm 27:13-14

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Anna continued in worship and prayer through long years. Her life reminds us that seasons of loss or limitation do not end spiritual usefulness. A wife can bring hope and perseverance to the marriage even when plans change.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Simeon and Anna?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Hope While Waiting

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Faith That Encourages Others

HEROES OF FAITH / Barnabas and Timothy

Read: 2 Timothy 1:3-7; Acts 16:1-3

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Timothy's faith was nurtured across generations and strengthened by wise encouragement. Wives can consider how words, prayer, and example help faith grow in a home without carrying every spiritual responsibility alone.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Barnabas and Timothy?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Faith That Encourages Others

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Finishing Faithfully Together

HEROES OF FAITH / Paul and the Witnesses of Faith

Read: Hebrews 11:32-40; Hebrews 12:1-3

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Hebrews honors women and men whose faith sometimes brought victories and sometimes suffering. A wife can take courage that God measures faithfulness differently from worldly success. Both spouses need grace to endure.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Paul and the Witnesses of Faith?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Finishing Faithfully Together

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?