

Come, Follow Me

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / The call of Jesus

Read: Matthew 4:18-22; Luke 9:23-25

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus called ordinary people to follow Him before they knew the road ahead. Following Christ as a husband begins with your own surrender, not with managing your wife's spiritual life. Consider what habits compete with His voice and how faithful discipleship can make you more attentive at home.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of The call of Jesus?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

Learning to Love Like Jesus

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Christlike love

Read: John 13:34-35; Ephesians 5:25

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus calls His followers to love as He has loved them. Christ's love was practical, costly and truthful. A husband can ask whether his daily words, plans and use of time communicate sacrificial care rather than entitlement.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Christlike love?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?

The Heart of a Servant

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Jesus washes feet

Read: John 13:1-17

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus, the Teacher and Lord, washed His disciples' feet. Service does not lower a person's dignity; it displays humility. Ask where you expect to be served but hesitate to do an unnoticed task.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Jesus washes feet?

Grace for Our Imperfections

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Mercy and truth

Read: John 8:1-11; John 1:14-17

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus opposed hypocrisy while calling people away from sin. A husband who has received mercy can tell the truth without shaming his wife. Think about whether your tone invites honest conversation or defensiveness.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Mercy and truth?

When the Storms Come

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Jesus calms the sea

Read: Mark 4:35-41

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

The disciples feared they would perish, yet Jesus was present in the boat. Fear need not become blame. A husband can acknowledge uncertainty honestly and resist the urge to pretend he has every answer.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Jesus calms the sea?

The Power of Gentle Words

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Gentleness of Christ

Read: Matthew 11:28-30; Proverbs 15:1

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus described Himself as meek and lowly in heart. Strength and gentleness can belong together. A husband can resist sarcasm and quick anger, using his words to build safety and understanding.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Gentleness of Christ?

Choosing Forgiveness

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / The unforgiving servant

Read: Matthew 18:21-35

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus teaches forgiveness from the reality of mercy received. A husband can surrender resentment and own his wrongs rather than using forgiveness language to avoid responsibility. Reconciliation may need truthful repair and time.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of The unforgiving servant?
