

Come, Follow Me

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / The call of Jesus

Read: Luke 10:38-42; John 12:26

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Mary chose to listen to Jesus amid competing demands. Following Christ as a wife involves your own willing response to His word, not merely supporting another person's plans. Consider what distractions crowd out time with God and how listening changes the way you relate to your husband.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of The call of Jesus?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Come, Follow Me

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Learning to Love Like Jesus

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Christlike love

Read: 1 John 4:7-12; John 15:12-13

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

God's love begins with His initiative toward us. A wife does not need to manufacture love from exhaustion; she can receive God's grace and extend patient, sincere care. Consider how love can be expressed honestly without hiding needs or fears.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Christlike love?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Learning to Love Like Jesus

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

The Heart of a Servant

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Jesus washes feet

Read: Philippians 2:1-8

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus took the place of a servant without needing applause. Humble service is not the same as accepting exploitation; both spouses are called to love one another. Reflect on the strengths you can offer freely and the help you might need to receive.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Jesus washes feet?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

The Heart of a Servant

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Grace for Our Imperfections

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Mercy and truth

Read: Luke 7:36-50; Romans 8:1-4

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

The forgiven woman in Luke 7 responded to Jesus with love. Grace gives us room to confess, change and receive help. A wife can practice mercy without pretending that harmful behavior is acceptable or that broken trust repairs itself overnight.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Mercy and truth?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Grace for Our Imperfections

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

When the Storms Come

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Jesus calms the sea

Read: Matthew 14:22-33

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Peter looked to Jesus when waves overwhelmed him. Faith does not require ignoring real danger or emotions. A wife can bring fears into prayer and communicate what support would help her face the storm.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Jesus calms the sea?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

When the Storms Come

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

The Power of Gentle Words

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Gentleness of Christ

Read: Matthew 12:18-21; Ephesians 4:29

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus gave weary people an invitation to rest rather than another burden. A wife can speak honestly with tenderness, recognizing that gentleness does not mean silence. Reflect on the difference between a soft answer and avoiding a needed conversation.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Gentleness of Christ?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

The Power of Gentle Words

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Finding Time With the Father

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Jesus and prayer

Read: Luke 10:38-42; Philippians 4:6-7

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Mary's attention to Jesus challenges us to make space for His words amid responsibilities. A wife's prayer life belongs to her relationship with God, not to her performance for others. What simple rhythm could help you seek Him regularly?

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Jesus and prayer?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Finding Time With the Father

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Choosing Forgiveness

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / The unforgiving servant

Read: Luke 23:33-34; Ephesians 4:31-32

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Christ's forgiveness invites us to release revenge. Forgiveness is not pretending an injury did not happen, and it never cancels wise boundaries or safety. A wife can ask God for a willing heart while also seeking appropriate accountability.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of The unforgiving servant?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Choosing Forgiveness

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Seeking God's Will Together

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Jesus in Gethsemane

Read: Matthew 26:36-46

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus did not hide His distress from the Father. A wife can name her genuine hopes and concerns in prayer. Shared discernment honors conscience and Scripture rather than requiring one spouse to erase her judgment.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Jesus in Gethsemane?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Seeking God's Will Together

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Bearing Fruit That Remains

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / The true vine

Read: Galatians 5:22-26; John 15:12-17

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

The Spirit produces love, joy, peace and patience as we walk with Him. A wife can observe growth without measuring herself against perfection. Where do you see God working, even through small changes?

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of The true vine?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Bearing Fruit That Remains

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Loving Through Sacrifice

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / The cross of Christ

Read: Romans 5:6-11; 1 John 3:16-18

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

At the cross, love is shown in action. A wife can consider practical generosity of heart without believing she must accept neglect, coercion or harm. Mutual love seeks the good of both people.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of The cross of Christ?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Loving Through Sacrifice

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?

Walking Together Toward Eternity

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Christ our hope

Read: Revelation 21:1-5; Colossians 3:1-4

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

God promises to make all things new. A wife can draw hope that seasons of loss and change do not have the final word. What eternal hope might strengthen patience and gratitude today?

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Christ our hope?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

MY KEY DISCOVERY

MY PRAYER

Walking Together Toward Eternity

Which verse stood out to me most, and why?

What challenged or encouraged me personally?

What will I share with my spouse?

What will I practice before we study together?