

Created for His Purpose

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Called to good works

Read: Ephesians 2:8-10; Romans 12:1-2

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

God saves by grace, not by our achievements, and prepares good works for His people. A husband can ask how God might use his ordinary gifts in ways that bless his spouse and neighbors without making service a competition.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Called to good works?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
- What attitude in your own heart needs prayer or correction?
- How could this truth change how you listen to or serve your spouse?
- What is one practical step of obedience you can take this week?

As for Me and My House

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / A home serving the Lord

Read: Joshua 24:14-15

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Joshua publicly chose to serve the Lord. Household faithfulness is sustained by example, not a slogan. A husband can model repentance, worship and honesty rather than demanding agreement by force.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of A home serving the Lord?

Let Our Light Shine

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Witness in daily life

Read: Matthew 5:13-16

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

Jesus calls disciples the light of the world. Witness begins in the integrity of how we speak and act at home. A husband can make his public testimony match his private kindness.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Witness in daily life?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?

Using Our God-Given Gifts

BIBLE STUDY FOCUS / Many gifts, one body

Read: Romans 12:4-8

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION

God gives different gifts for serving others. A husband can honor the wisdom and abilities of his wife rather than assume one spouse must do everything. Unity welcomes difference.

PERSONAL STUDY QUESTIONS

- What do these verses reveal about God's character and the faith of Many gifts, one body?
- Where do you see both a strength and a human limitation in this account?
